

A website on the intellectual martyrs of '71 was launched.

The website “Omlan Shurjoshontan” on the history and facts about the intellectual martyrs was formally inaugurated on 14th December, 2017.

On the website - www.intellectualmartyrsbd.com, you will find the martyred intellectual pictures, information, achievements and contribution to the liberation war. The Initiative was taken by G-Gas with the assistance of the Liberation War Museum and overall supervision of Asiatic Marketing Communications Ltd. The honorable trustee of the Museum of Liberation war and the chairman of Asiatic Marketing Communications Ltd., Mr. Aly Zaker formally launched the website, which was handed over by the Managing Director of G-Gas(Energypac Power Generation Ltd.)- Mr. Humayun Rashid. After the inauguration, Aly Zaker said, ‘The loss of these brave heroes is irreplaceable. We have taken this initiative to create a platform just to treasure their memory and achievements. The managing director of G-Gas(Energypac Power Generation Ltd.), Mr. Humayun Rashid said, 'this endeavor undertaken by G-Gas will aid this generation and the future generations to learn about our great intellectual warriors and inspire them to know more about our liberation war.' He hopefully expressed that with everyone's participation, this database will be more diverse, prolific and sophisticated. Anyone can add any information about or picture of the intellectual martyrs and can support the Liberation War Museum. The launching program was attended by different officials of the Liberation War Museum, Asiatic AMCL and G-gas with journalists of different print and electronic media.
